

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Department of Land Economy

DEPARTMENTAL SEMINAR SERIES LENT 2010

WEDNESDAYS 4-5 PM
MILL LANE ROOM 1

JANUARY
13th January	Dr Yongfu Huang Department of Land Economy University of Cambridge	Is economic volatility detrimental to global sustainability?
20th January	Dr. Maria Loureiro University of Vigo Galicia, Spain	Valuing environmental damages caused by large oil spills: Lessons learned from the prestige oil spill
27th January	T.B.C.	T.B.C.
FEBRUARY
3rd February	Prof Edwin Zaccai Institute for Environmental Management & Land Planning, Université Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium	The contradictions of sustainable consumption under climate change
10th February	Prof Susan Smith Durham University	'Safe as houses? The uneven integration of housing, mortgage and financial markets'
17th February	Dr Timo Goeschl University of Heidelberg, Germany	Criminal sanctions to protect the environment: Economics, law, and empirical evidence
24th February	Prof Greg Lloyd University of Ulster	Recasting regulatory and institutional arrangements in Northern Ireland - conflicts of theory and practice?
MARCH
3rd March	Prof Barrie Needham Radboud University Nijmegen, Netherlands	Institutions for housing supply, and their effects
10th March	Prof S Howell Manchester Business School, University of Manchester	Large wind farms: Output and maximising Value from trading with the power system

Contact: Unai Pascual (up211@cam.ac.uk)