

Department of Land Economy Mentoring Scheme

	Dr Ashley Bowes Barrister Cornerstone Barristers
---	--

Dr Ashley Bowes is a barrister specialising in all aspects of the development in use of land including: planning, property, licensing and local government law.

His work involves representing developers, local authorities and interest groups at planning inquiries and onto litigation in the courts. He is also a member of the Attorney General's Panel of Junior Counsel to the Crown, in which capacity he represents the UK Government in his areas of specialism.

Ashley is the General Editor of Sweet & Maxwell's *Journal of Planning & Environment Law* and the author of Oxford University Press's textbook, *A Practical Approach to Planning Law*, as well as being a contributor to *Butterworths Planning Law Service* and to the *Routledge Handbook of Comparative Planning Law*.