

Department of Land Economy Mentoring Scheme

Phil Clark

Global Head of Real Assets Equity

Aegon Asset Management

Phil joined AEGON Asset Management's Investment team in 2007 and leads the teams that invest directly and indirectly in real assets equity, both listed and non-listed.

Phil has worked in the real estate investment industry for 33 years and prior to AEGON he spent 10 years at Aviva Investors and developed their sector focused real estate funds business including what the United Nations describe as the world's first sustainable property investment fund. Before joining Aviva Phil was a broker in Cushman and Wakefield undertaking investment and debt advisory and brokerage mandates.

Phil is the Chairman of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) Commercial Property Forum, an ex officio Chairman of the Investment Property Forum Board, Co-Chair of the Property Industry Alliance Debt Group, and is a Trustee of the University of London.

Phil is a Member of the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors, is an FCA Authorised Person, has a Bsc from Surrey University and an MA from City University, Cass Business School and lives in Cambridge.