Mr Luke Hamilton-Jones

Asset Manager

Cadogan

Luke is an Asset Manager at Cadogan, responsible for the management of the Sloane Square portfolio including the award-winning Pavilion Road area. Prior to that, he worked on both the King's Road and Sloane Street portfolios.

Before joining Cadogan in 2017, Luke trained as a Chartered Building Surveyor at Hollis, advising on technical due diligence for acquisitions, project and development management, and dilapidations for both funds and REITS.

Luke received an MSt in Real Estate from the University of Cambridge and a BSc (Hons) in Building Surveying and the Environment from the University of Plymouth. Luke is a member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors and currently sits as the Vice Chair of the RICS Matrics in London.
