

Department of Land Economy Mentoring Scheme

Andrew Hook, MRICS

Andrew is a portfolio manager with expertise across the Continental European and UK real estate markets, built up over 20 years in the real estate industry. He started his career with Donaldsons, before spending 5 years with Curzon Global Partners, working across investments, asset management and investment strategy. For the past 14.5 years Andrew has been a fund manager at Aviva Investors, managing funds across the UK and Continental Europe for both institutional and retail clients.

Andrew holds an MPhil in Real Estate Finance from the University of Cambridge, where he was awarded to RICS Prize, an MA in Geography from the University of Oxford and a Graduate Diploma in Law from Nottingham Law School. He also holds the IMC and is a Chartered Surveyor.