

Department of Land Economy Mentoring Scheme

David Morley

Head of Real Estate

Actis

London, UK

David is Head of Real Estate at Actis and a member of its Executive Committee. David has been investing in emerging markets for over twenty years, of which fifteen have been in Africa.

He heads the Actis Real Estate team that manages the 2011 and 2016 vintage Actis Africa Real Estate funds. David holds a degree in Economics and Land Economy from Cambridge University; an MA in development economics from the University of East Anglia, and an MBA from London Business School.