

Department of Land Economy Mentoring Scheme

Tarcisio Hardman Reis
Manager
International Air Transport Association
(IATA)

Tarcisio Hardman Reis has more than 12 years of experience working with international organizations on fields like trade, development and environment policy.

Mr. Hardman Reis has worked as a programme officer at the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) and as an Economic Affairs Officer at the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE). He is currently a manager at the International Air Transport Association (IATA) where he coordinates a number of initiatives, including assessments of illegal wildlife trade on air transport.

Mr. Hardman Reis received a PhD in international law from the University of Lausanne and is a regular contributor to a number of publications on international law, including the Yearbook of International Environmental Law, where he writes about biotechnology.

Mr. Reis is a Brazilian and Swiss national and currently lives in Geneva, Switzerland.